Course Evaluation:

Please see the instructor's course information sheet for specific items used in evaluating student performance.

Standard Written English REQUIREMENT:

All written assignments should be presented using the conventions of Standard Written English. South Plains College requires all students to become proficient in "academic English," a form of English that is typically used in academic, professional, and business contexts. While slang, regional idioms, and informal kinds of self-expression are appropriate in some contexts, they are out of place in academic writing. Writing instructors and professors in courses across the campus expect all students to demonstrate proficiency in using the conventions of academic English in their written work, whether it is in-class exams or take-home essays. Each instructor may also add additional requirements regarding written assignments that are contained in your syllabus.

Attendance Policy: Students are expected to attend all classes in order to be successful in a course. The student may be administratively withdrawn from the course when absences become excessive as defined in the course syllabus.

When an unavoidable reason for class absence arises, such as illness, an official trip authorized by the college or an official activity, the instructor may permit the student to make up work missed. It is the student's responsibility to complete work missed within a reasonable period of time as determined by the instructor. Students are officially enrolled in all courses for which they pay tuition and fees at the time of registration. Should a student, for any reason, delay in reporting to a class after official enrollment, absences will be attributed to the student from the first class meeting.

Students who enroll in a course but have "Never Attended" by the official census date, as reported by the faculty member, will be administratively dropped by the Office of Admissions and Records. A student who does not meet the attendance requirements of a class as stated in the course syllabus and does not officially withdraw from that course by the official census date of the semester, may be administratively withdrawn from that course and receive a grade of "X" or "F" as determined by the instructor. Instructors are responsible for clearly stating their administrative drop policy in the course syllabus, and it is the student's responsibility to be aware of that policy.

It is the student's responsibility to verify administrative drops for excessive absences through MySPC using his or her student online account. If it is determined that a student is awarded financial aid for a class or classes in which the student never attended or participated, the financial aid award will be adjusted in accordance with the classes in which the student did attend/participate and the student will owe any balance resulting from the adjustment.

Required Text: We will be using the American Ethnicity: The Dynamics and Consequences of Discrimination – 7th edition.

THE RULES:

Pages 11-15 of the South Plains Student Guide highlights topics and procedures of Student Conduct and Penalties for Misconduct. I suggest you read this. Here are the highlights as they fit this class:

Academic Integrity: Cheating of any type is a serious matter and will NOT be tolerated. This includes cheating in any form on tests, quizzes, homeworks, and/or assignments (such as copying someone's exam or assignments), and plagiarism.

According to the South Plains College website,

<http://www.southplainscollege.edu/library/smartstarts/mod6/04-plagiarism.html>, "plagiarism is presenting the words or ideas of someone else as your own without proper acknowledgment of the source. It is okay to use the ideas of other people, but you do need to correctly credit them. When you quote people – or even when you summarize or paraphrase information found in books, articles, or Web pages – you must acknowledge the original author."

(If you do not know/understand what constitutes plagiarism, or if you need further clarification ask me or look it up .. ignorance will not be an excuse.) Do not even THINK ABOUT cheating in any way.

However, if you do and if you are caught the following WILL happen ...

1. You will receive a ZERO on the assignment and we will have a discussion
2. You will be ineligible to receive any extra credit points
3. You may be dropped ONE letter grade at the end of the semester
4. IF you are caught a second time, you be dropped from the class with an F
5. You will be reported to the Dean of Students

THIS HOLDS TRUE FOR ANY ASSIGNMENT – EVEN AN EXTRA CREDIT ASSIGNMENT. Penalization because of plagiarism/cheating is the consequence of YOUR choices and YOUR actions. It is not something I am doing to YOU – it is what YOU are doing to YOU.

This is serious. I am serious. DO NOT DO IT !! Take the low grade for not-knowing/doing the material, rather than the above repercussions for cheating.

Student Behavior: This is college, and I view you as an adult. Please act like one. Be courteous, be respectful, think before you speak. Do not disrupt class. If you are disruptive with your online responses or comments, you may be dropped from the class.

Attendance: Here's how it works in this class:

"Participation" in this online class is mandatory – you must be active. There are numerous assignments which should force you to log-on continuously. I understand that each of you has your own schedule and will be logging-on at different times. That's fine. All that is expected of you is that you GET THE WORK DONE !!

I do not accept late work (one exception – see the "Grading Rubric" for Discussions).

Each assignment and discussion has a dictated due DATE and TIME. It is your responsibility to get the work done and submitted to me by the designated time/date. Therefore, since this is a virtual classroom, attendance will be taken according to completion/submission of Discussions, Quizzes, Assignments, and projects.

If you are unable to log-on or complete your work for any reason, YOU MUST CONTACT ME ASAP!

Excuses such as "The network was down," or "I could not figure out how to send the assignment through the assignments function" are not acceptable. In short, plan ahead and do not wait until the last minute to submit your assignments. It is always okay to turn in assignments early although discussion board postings should be done with the calendar schedule.

I do use the Retention Emails to notify you of missed-assignment-counts and to allow you to receive intervention from a Counselor

Administrative Drop Policy:

- 1) Anyone who has not turned in any work before the Roster Certification date will be dropped for "never attending"
- 2) Anyone who has missed turning in 5 assignments will be Administratively Dropped

Courtesy and Respect: I am your instructor, and though I may joke around with you please don't lose sight of the fact that I am still your instructor. So please do not address me with "hey," "yo," etc. Emails must also abide by Standard Written English. Standard Written English, courtesy and respect is expected in all manners of correspondence, and I will do the same. THANKS !!

THE GRADES:

1. Tests: You will be instructed to take an exam/quiz for most units. These tests are timed and will shut down if you exceed the allotted time. Also, do not try to open another tab on the internet while you are taking the test because that will not be allowed – the computer will shut you down.

- There are NO make-up exams except for EXTREME circumstances which must be discussed with me within ONE DAY of your missed test .
- Do not be late for tests – I do not accept late work.
- If you happen to miss a test .. do not fret. A missed test does not equate to Failing the class. It could, if your grades for everything else are poor .. but if you are a good student and do well on everything else, a missed test should not lead to a failing grade.
- The test questions will be randomly selected and will consist of Multiple Choice and True-False.
- When taking quizzes, SAVE your answers to each question as you go along. The computer may time-out and you run the risk of losing your work.

2. ASSIGNMENTS & Projects: I do not accept late assignments unless your issue has been discussed with me. Things are due when they are due. Anything not turned in when collected is considered LATE and will not be accepted.

I suggest that the lengthy assignments/projects be typed in Word first and then copy/pasted to the SUBMISSIONS BOX of the assignment on Blackboard. The reason for this is that if you are idle in Blackboard for a certain length of time, it will boot you out; which means that your incomplete work will be lost. That will be very frustrating. So, if you know that you will be working on an assignment or project for a good amount of time, do it in Microsoft Word first.

Please follow these instructions: typed, double spaced, 10-12 font, 1" margins. Standard written English is EXPECTED on all written assignments. NO TEXT ABBREVIATIONS or LINGO. If Standard written English is not illustrated, points WILL BE DEDUCTED.

DO NOT SEND ME ANY "attachments." You must use the "SUBMISSIONS BOX" for submitting assignments and projects. There is a "submissions" link for you to click-on and it will open the Submissions Box. If you do not use the "Submissions Box" (if you use the "comments box" by mistake) I will not accept your assignment and you will receive a zero. Please follow the instructions.

3. DISCUSSIONS: Each unit has one or more discussions that require your posts and comments. You must read the instructions carefully for each one. Pay attention to the due dates/times! No late work will be accepted.

Discussions are used in online courses for you to prove that you "get it;" that you understand the material, that you are reading the material, and that you are proficient enough in it to expand upon it in discussions. This is how face-to-face class interaction is substituted. It is very valuable and REQUIRED for this course.

Please review the guidelines I have posted on proper "netiquette." Just because we don't see your face and/or hear your voice does not give you a free pass to be rude, crude, or hurtful. The computer is not a veil.

Please refer to the grading rubric I have posted. I will be using it to grade your postings, and there are certain criteria you must fulfill.

* REGARDLESS OF WHAT THE ASSIGNMENT IS... YOU ARE EXPECTED TO WRITE IN FORMAL GRAMMAR. I WILL NOT ACCEPT ANY TEXT MESSAGING ABBREVIATIONS !! THIS IS A CLASS..NOT A PHONE.... ****

Also, for Discussions... I expect you to include terms and definitions from the unit within the context of your answer. You will lose points if I do not see terms and definitions !

 Most discussions are “closed” where you need to post your answer first, before you can see any of your classmate responses. I understand that students can manipulate this. I also understand that students can make mistakes when posting. But you need to understand that I need to grade YOUR work and comprehension of the material, not something you copied from a classmate. So, upon your 3rd “manipulation” of this set-up, you will receive a zero on the discussion for this and every manipulation moving forward . **

Your overall, class grade is compiled in the following way:

Exams = averaged and constitutes 20% of your grade
Discussions = averaged and constitutes 40% of your grade
Assignments = averaged and constitutes 20% of your grade
Project(s) = averaged and constitutes 20% of your grade

Final Grades:

A = 90 and above

B = 80-89

C = 70-79

D = 60-69

F - 50 and below (F is the only “failing” grade)

*DO NOT Look at the tally of “points” provided by Blackboard to determine your grade. That is there incase everything is weighted equally. Here it is not (see above). Hence, do not use those “POINTS” to determine your grade. ****

THE GOOD NEWS:

I am a strong supporter of EXTRA CREDIT ! I believe that in order to learn about other cultures/groups, participation and observation in cultural functions outside of the classroom is necessary. This may come in the form of attending public presentations, performances, exhibits, events, or watching videos, TV shows, as well as reading articles/books, text book chapter reviews.

It just needs to pertain to a minority group (or member(s) of) in the United States.

I will announce eligible events as they come up, BUT you are not solely limited to these events. Check with me if there is something you want to do or watch. You are encouraged to do extra credit over your ideas.

Extra credit assignments will consist of four parts and 4 paragraphs:

1. A review of the event in your own words. (DO NOT PLAGIARIZE) - what was “it” about. Prove that you did the extra credit, so be sure this paragraph is substantial.
2. How it relates to class. – terms/concepts that relate to class (2 or more) and give examples to show you can correlate. – support the terms, you can’t just throw them in
3. What it tells you about that minority group or minority person – what did you learn
4. Your personal reflections – what did you think about “it?”

 If you report on an article or event, you must include a copy of the article, or a program from the event

All extra credit assignments must be turned-in through email, typed, double spaced, normal 10/12 font, 1” margins, and with all four criteria met. Standard Written English must be displayed. If your paper is not formatted as stated, it will be turned back to you ungraded. If completed correctly, handed-in extra credits can earn you 2 points to be added to your final, overall grade. A maximum of 8 points of extra credit will be allotted to be added to your final grade. This is a CHOICE you have .. extra credits are not required.

Find something that you like, that relates to class, for your extra credits!

 THE LAST DAY TO TURN IN EXTRA CREDITS IS BY 11:59PM on Friday, December 3rd – via email nsmith@southplainscollege.edu -or- the Internal email/message on our blackboard page

NOTE:

If EVER you should have any questions, concerns, etc – come and see me or contact me. That is what I am here for .. that is what my office hours are for. I cannot help you if you don't come and talk to me.

COMPUTER INFORMATION FOR AN ONLINE CLASS:

Blackboard Learn 9.1 is the computer software used to deliver this course. It is essential that you have reliable access to the Internet. It is not necessary to purchase or own your own computer but you should have a backup plan in place should you encounter computer problems. There are open computer labs available to all enrolled SPC students on all campuses. It is also the student's responsibility to have the required computer skills to complete this course. More information on online courses is available at www.southplainscollege.edu/online.

IF YOU SHOULD EVER ENCOUNTER TECHNICAL DIFFICULTIES WITH THE SYSTEM, DO NOT CONTACT ME. YOUR FIRST PHONE CALL SHOULD GO TO 806-716-2180 or email blackboard@southplainscollege.edu . OTHER TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE CAN BE FOUND AT BLACKBOARD.COM, AND THE SPC WEBPAGE (THEY HAVE TUTORIALS). You may email to tell me that someone from SPC Blackboard assistance is helping you, but do not call me for Technical/Computer related questions. I am not the expert on that. I can help you on ASSIGNMENT and COURSE CONTENT questions ... not the "system" questions.

Most Web educational experience will require the use of several additional browser plug-ins. The following list is a list of software that you will probably need to download for this class.
