Course Structure: FLEX course

REQUIRED MATERIALS

- The Enjoyment of Music, Essential Listening Edition by Forney and Dell'Antonio (W.W. Norton), 4e Edition
- Note taking materials
- Access to Blackboard

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Selected composers and compositions will be studied through an interpretation of their historical, functional, and cultural significance. This course satisfies the core curriculum requirement for Visual or Performing Arts.

COURSE REQUIREMENT

- Read the assigned chapters in the textbook prior to each class
- Attend all in-person or online classes. In case that students miss a scheduled class, they should watch recorded video lecture on Blackboard
- Take notes
- Participate in class discussions
- Actively listen to musical examples
- Complete outside assignments and online discussion
- View suggested audiovisual materials on selected topics
- Complete online exams on the assigned dates
- Choose one performance video suggested by professor and write a concert review paper

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Identify musical works and elements in a variety of styles
- Analyze the elements and structure of music using appropriate terminology
- Critically evaluate the influence of social, political, technological, and/or cultural ideas on music
- Articulate the significance of music as an art form within historical, cultural and social contexts

GRADE ASSESSMENT METHOD

1. Exam Grades (50%)

There will be five online exams with a time limit which are covering six musical periods. Each exam is worth 10% of the final grade. Exam materials will be drawn from class lectures, text reading, and listening example discussions.

- Exam 1: Medieval (400-1400) / Renaissance (1400-1600)
- Exam 2: Baroque (1600-1750)
- Exam 3: Classical (1750-1825)
- Exam 4: Romantic (1825-1900)
- Exam 5: Modern (1900-Present)

2. Online Discussion and Participation (20%)

All students are responsible for not only discussing about specific given topics with different musical aspects on Blackboard but also leaving at least 3 comments on the topic thread.

3. Reading Chapters and Online Listening Assignments (20%)

Reading assignments are listed on the Course Calendar. Please read the chapters before we cover the materials in class. Comprehensive understanding of chapters will be occasionally evaluated through in-class quizzes.

Online listening assignments can be found from Digital Resources on Blackboard. Listen to the recordings and answer to the questions. Please follow along the Listening Guide (LG) on your textbook for each selection while listening. Be prepared to discuss about the music and topics in class.

4. Concert Review Paper (10%)

Student must choose one concert from YouTube suggested by professor. Listen to the whole concert and write a review paper in the format of a two-page long, typed, double-spaced, and 12-point font. The paper should be submitted on Blackboard by Wednesday, December 9, 2020.

5. Class Attendance (Extra Points)

Students are expected to attend every class either in-person or online on Blackboard. All lectures will be livestreamed and recorded. For those who missed classes at real times, they are responsible for watching the lecture recordings on Blackboard.

DIGITAL RESOURCES ON BLACKBOARD

Digital Resources on Blackboard is where students can find profound online learning materials such as Tutorials, eBook, Playlists for Listening Guide, Chapter Quizzes, and Online Listening Assignments. For online assignments, students should register to the InQuizitive first. Please take your time to explore the digital resources.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Plagiarism is not tolerated in this course. Using outside research information for discussion answers or concert review paper is absolutely fine as long as the source material is acknowledged. However, cutting and pasting or extensive copying of information from outside sources (such as wikipedia) or from other students is not acceptable. Cheating or plagiarism will result in the student receiving a 0 on the current assignment for the first offense. Second offense: student will fail the current learning unit.
